

UW UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN Richland

A Campus of the University of Wisconsin Colleges

Japanese Youth Program American Teen Mentors Needed

Goal of the Program: The UW-Richland Japanese ESL Institute provides intensive programming intended to improve Japanese students' oral comprehension and English speaking skills. The program further serves to increase Japanese students' understanding of U.S. culture in preparation for one year of high school studies in the United States.

Dates of Program: (Note new program dates.) The U.S. Teen Mentor component of the program requires two days of training and 9 days of program work. Teen Mentor Training will be held June 28th and the first day of the program, July 29th. The program will run Thursday, July 29, 2010 through 8:00 p.m. on Friday, August 6, 2010. The Japanese students will arrive Thursday evening at approximately 5:30 p.m. and will depart early morning of August 7, 2010.

Benefits of the Program for U.S. Teens: The program offers you the opportunity to work closely with another culture. Teens receive training and experience in to facilitate learning of the English language and educate Japanese students about U.S. culture. You'll gain better understanding about your culture and to learn to how to effectively interact with individuals from another foreign culture. Many teens describe the experiences almost as if they had traveled to another culture. Because some teens may miss work to participate in the program, each of the U.S teens may be eligible receive an honorarium for their participation. As well, your meals, lodging and activity fees will be provided.

U.S. Teens Participation, Learning, and Commitment:

- To spend as much time as possible with the Japanese students.
- To work as a program facilitator, serving as a liaison between the adult group leaders and the Japanese teens.
- Attend English classes (called English as a Second Language Class) with students. Assist teachers with group activities.
- Facilitate study groups.
- Teach a class about a topic or hobby that you find interesting.
- Enjoy free time full of conversation. Interact with Japanese teens during activities, such as sports, dancing, interest/talent show nights, rolling skating, and a family visit.
- Stay overnight in the residence halls with the Japanese students.

U.S. Teen Participation Requirements:

- Be currently enrolled in a U.S. High School.
- Possess a good command of the English Language.
- Be open to meeting new people from another culture.
- Possess the ability to be part of a group in many different aspects: friend, mentor, participant, good sport.
- Have your English teacher and one adult leader complete and return a recommendation form to UW-Richland Continuing Education.
- Fill out the Teen application form.

U.S Student Selection: The number of U.S teens selected will be proportionate to the gender of the male/female Japanese students. Applicants may be asked to appear in person or by phone for an interview.
